VICE PRESIDENT'S CONDITION GRAVE

James S. Sherman Extremely Restless and at Times Irrational.

SPECULATION IN WASHINGTON

Deep Interest Manifested at Capital in Vice President's Illness—National Committee May Select Sub-Candidate.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 29.—After a restless and unsatisfactory day, Vice President Sherman dropped off to sleep while sitting in his chair at 8:30 o'clock tonight and at 11 o'clock tonight is still sleeping. Dr. Peck, who had been with him most of the time for twenty-four hours, left for home, expressing confidence that his patient would go through the night without great distress.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 29.—No material change was noted today in the condition of Vice President Sherman.

At 6 o'clock tonight Dr. Peck issued the following statement relative to the condition of his patient:

"For the past week or 10 days Mr. Sherman's friends and physicians have felt a great deal of solicitude about him and for the past three or four days his uremic condition has caused a great deal of alarm. After a very disturbing day yesterday he fell into a natural sleep at 11 o'clock last night without the aid of sleep producing drugs and slept until 5 o'clock this morning quietly and comfortably. This afternoon there has been a recurrence of his disturbance, but for the larger part of the afternoon he has been resting quietly. His heart strength is keeping up well; his pulse is from 80 to 86; temperature practically normal; respiration from 17 to 30."

During the day there were several emergency calls from the Sherman house for the physician. The Vice President was not in great pain but was extremely restless and at times irrational, both of which conditions were caused by the presence of uremic poison due to the inaction of the kidneys.

Dr. Peck makes no effort to minimize the seriousness of this condition, but is hopeful to stimulate the kidneys, and if he succeeds, expects a marked improvement. In no event does he anticipate a critical crisis for a day or two.

There is no effort to conceal the facts concerning the Vice President's case. On the contrary, both Dr. Peck and Mr. Sherman's family concede its critical nature.

The doctors say, however, that kidney diseases are of such a nature that it is quite impossible to foretell the course of any given case with exactness. Mr. Sherman't robust constitution is in his favor, but the fact that he has lost ground steadily since August weighs against him.

Dr. Janeway, of New York, and Dr. Elsner, of Syracuse, both of whom have been called into consultation during the past 10 days, confirm Dr. Peck's diagnosis, leaving no doubt that the kidneys are the seat of the malady, while the heart, the arteries and the muscles about the heart are all seriously involved.

Discussion at Capital.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Deep interest was manifested today throughout Washington in the condition of Vice President Sherman at Utica. His illness was the subject of repeated inquiry at the White House, and was discussed at the cabinet meeting. The most optimistic did not expect him to be in the chair when the Senate reconvened in December.

The absence of the presiding officer, however, will give the Senate no new problem to solve. The bitter fight over the election of a President pro tem. ended last session in an agreement to have Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, Republican, and Senator Bacon, Georgia, Democrat, alternate in the chair. Just before Congress adjourned, Senator Bacon was chosen to serve as president pro tem. until December 16th, and the understanding is that the rotation with Senator Gallinger will continue indefinitely.

Should the Vice President's illness result fatally or compel his withdrawal before the election, the opinion was expressed that the National, or executive committee would select a subcandidate whose name would be printed on the ballot in States where the tickets have not already been sent to the press. No precedents were found, however, covering the situation.

The discussion which arose over the death of Horace Greely in 1872 was recalled in the investigation today. His death occurred after the November election, but before the electoral college met to select a President and Vice President. The ability of electors to vote for others than those nominated by the party convention or whose names had been printed on the ballot was then demonstrated, many Democratic leaders voting for others than Greely. "Everything Looks Fine"
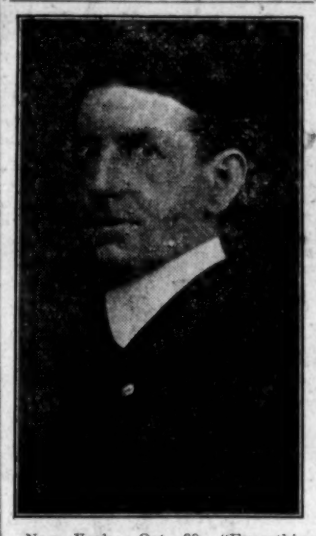
—Assistant Secretary Vick.



New York, Oct. 29.—"Everything looks fine and the goose is hanging high," said Assistant Secretary Walker W. Vick, of the Democratic National Committee at headquarters tonight. "All we've got to do is to keep our hands on the reins from now until next Tuesday and we'll win in a walk. Wilmington and North Carolina are doing handsomely."

MURDERED ON WEDDING EVE

Miss Sophia Singer, Pretty Baltimore Girl, Dead In Chicago—Was to Have Been Married Today—Robbery Motive

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Mystery surrounding the murder of Sophia G. Singer, member of a well known Baltimore family, whose body was found bound and gagged in a rooming house today, three weeks after her elopement with William Worthen, was not solved by an inquest, which was adjourned tonight after a few witnesses were examined. Coroner Hoffmann said that no more could be done until the police found Charles D. Conway and his wife, vaudeville performers, wanted as witnesses.

The Conways occupied rooms on the same floor, but disappeared before the body was found.

Conway recently had a leg amputated and was advised by surgeons that unless he gave it continuous treatment he would die. Acting on this information the police are watching all the hospitals and doctors' offices for Conway and his wife. Worthen is held as a witness.

The police tonight abandoned the robbery theory and declared Miss Singer's jewelry was not worth more than $100 and she did not have more than $50 in her purse when she was murdered.

At the inquest Albert F. Harmon, a nephew of the victim, testified that Miss Singer had been married to a man by the name of Wells eight years ago, but was divorced after they had lived together two years.

Mrs. Charles F. Sucky, owner of a rooming house where Worthen and Singer formerly lived, testified that Miss Singer drank heavily at times and that she tried to keep Worthen in ignorance of it.

Worthen, who is a street car conductor, repeated the story he had previously told the police.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—The romance of an elopement was blighted by a brutal murder here today when Miss Sophia G. Singer, an attractive Baltimore girl, was found dead. Several hundred dollars in money and jewelry, brought from her Maryland home to grace her wedding tomorrow to William R. Worthen, a street car conductor, was missing. Robbery has been accepted as the motive for the crime.

Worthen found the girl's body when he returned home after midnight to a suite occupied by them and two vaudeville performers in a rooming house at 3229 Indiana avenue. Miss Singer had been bound and gagged and struck with a "billy."

The two vaudeville performers, Charles D. Conway, a high diver, whose right leg has been amputated below the knee and his wife, who also is known as Beatrice Riall, and May Monte, are being sought by the police in connection with the crime.

The body of Miss Singer was found on a bed in the room occupied by the Conways. The couple had been in the house during the evening, but no trace of them has been found since the discovery of the murder. According to Worthen's story Miss Singer was an acquaintance of Mrs. Conway, who was known to her as Miss Riall. Worthen said it was at Mrs. Conway's invitation that he and his sweetheart who were to be married tomorrow, went to room at the same house.

Worthen declared that before leaving the house last night he gave his fiancee $48 in the presence of the Conways and then went downtown. It was after midnight when he returned to the house and found the hallway spattered with blood. He aroused others in the house by repeated pounding on the door leading to the Conway room after finding that Miss Singer was not in her own apartment.

A key was finally furnished by the keeper of the house and the door was opened. Further investigation show-

BECKER WILL BE SENTENCED TODAY

"Death House" at Sing Sing Will Soon be Convicted Man's Home.

SHAPIRO MAKES CONFESSION

Driver of "Murder Car" "Squeals" and State Looks for Little Trouble in Convicting Gangsters—Davidon's Trial.

New York, Oct. 29.—Charles Becker, deposed police lieutenant, will be sentenced tomorrow morning for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler. Becker will be brought before Justice Goff in the Criminal Courts building at 10:30 o'clock. He will be told he must die in the electric chair in Sing Sing prison.

Mrs. Becker will be present to hear her husband's sentence pronounced.

"I shall certainly be in the court room," the devoted wife said today after leaving her husband behind the bars in "Murderers' Row" in the Tombs.

"I shall go on the train with my husband to Sing Sing. I want to stay at his side as long as possible. I think it is my duty to do that and to be as brave as I can."

The "death house" at Sing Sing will be Becker's home beginning not later than Sunday, the State plans. The district attorney does not want the responsibility of the ex-lieutenant's presence in this city when he places the gunmen on trial. The first of them probably will be tried Monday. Sheriff Harburger declares he will not delay Becker's removal from the Tombs.

While State counsel is said to be willing to wait until Saturday before taking Becker to Sing Sing, Sheriff Harburger said he would start with his prisoner Thursday morning; possibly tomorrow morning.

The task of the State prosecuting the gangsters—"Lefty Louie," "Whitey Lewis", "Gyp the Blood", and "Dago Frank"—was made less difficult this afternoon when William Shapiro, driver of the "murder car" made what was purported to be a complete confession.

Shapiro was closeted with District Attorney Whitman for several hours. For days his counsel, Aaron J. Levy, had urged his client to tell all he knew.

"Shapiro feared to do so," said the lawyer, "because he believed he would be killed." With Shapiro's confession and his testimony on the stand against the "murder crew" all in corroboration of what the State now knows of the movements of Rosenthal's alleged slayers on the morning the gambler was killed, District Attorney Whitman believes he will have no trouble convicting the gangsters.

If Shapiro tells a story which will help convict his passengers in the "murder car" he probably will be tried on some less serious charge than that of murder.

Mr. Whitman is said to be willing to agree to this, but is not prepared to grant Shapiro complete immunity.

"Red Phil" Davidson, slayer of "Big Jack" Zelig, is expected to plead guilty either to murder in the second degree or to manslaughter when brought to trial tomorrow. Mr. Whitman says that Davidson will not force the State to try him, but he is ready to go on with the case.

Davidson's counsel, James W. Osborne, it is understood, will insist that his client be allowed to plead to manslaughter, which has 20 years as maximum penalty. If the State insists on second degree murder as the plea, Davidson can be sentenced to life imprisonment.

RENEWS BRIGANDAGE.

Rebel Leader Antone Rojas Attacks American Settlement.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 29.—The rebel leader, Antone Rojas, has again begun his former brigandage in American settlements of the Casas Grandes region, according to refugees arriving today. Rojas is holding A. P. Shillsbury for $3,000 ransom. Shillsbury is a wealthy ranchman of Colpinia Pache county, a Mormon settlement, but is not a Mormon. Other Americans have been released on the payments of small ransoms. Rebel representatives today received word that Gen. Pasqual Orozco, with the main group of the rebel army in the north will re-enter Chihuahua in view of the withdrawal of Federal troops to the South.

Rebels in small bands are moving along the Texas border to the west.

YOKE FELLOWS' BAND.

Officers for Ensuing Six Months Elected at Meeting Last Night.

The Yoke Fellows' Band met in regular session at the Y. M. C. A. offices last night. The regular and prospective appointments were discussed at length. One field was dropped from the list, it being thought best on account of the regular church services conducted and two new fields were added where no regular services are being held. The officers elected for the coming six months are as follows: Louis Williams, president; R. F. Coleman, vice president; D. B. Robinson, secretary; J. B. Huntington, treasurer.

The report of work done during the month was very gratifying. The total number of meetings held by the band was 40, attendance 554.

DECISIVE BATTLE IS BEING FOUGHT

Fate of Turkey Hangs on Result of Engagement With the Allies.

OTTOMANS CLAIM ADVANTAGE

Turkey's Last Chance to Retrieve Hopeless Campaign—Not Known Where Action Is Taking Place—Cabinet Changes

London, October 29.—The long-awaited battle which will decide the fate of Turkey now is being fought. The army under Nazim Pasha, minister of war and commander-in-chief is engaged, and according to Constantinople official dispatches, the operations are favorable to the Ottomans. The dispatches, however, don't indicate where the chief action is taking place or how the opposing forces compare.

It is Turkey's last chance to retrieve an almost hopeless campaign. Nazim Pasha is fighting with his back to the wall; his communications have been cut and it is impossible for him to get fresh supplies or reinforcements.

In Constantinople the feeling of confidence is reviving. It is believed that the war minister has at last assumed the offensive. But this is by no means certain, as the battle may have been forced upon him.

Sofia dispatches indicated a continued forward movement of the Bulgarians, but give no details. There is still no confirmation of the reported capture of Lule burgas, Demotica and Drama.

The Bulgarians still are fighting in the direction of Visca in persuance of their plan to advance to the extreme east in the direction of Constantinople. The Greeks also are marching with victories to their credit, towards Saloniki, where a feeling of extreme anxiety is said to prevail, and provisions are running short. The fact that no apparent effort is being made to stop the Greek advance to Saloniki is held to indicate that the bulk of Turkey's army there has been transfered to Thrace.

No recent information has been received of the operations around Scutari or other points to the west, and Sofia today observed a significant silence.

Diplomatic activities continue in London. Premier Asquith had an audience with the King today.

No formal action has been taken until the result of the great battle is known.

Fierce Battle Being Waged

Constantinople, Oct. 29.—A late telegram received from Nazim Pasha says that the battle begun today, is still being waged with great violence. He adds that the situation for the Ottoman troops is very favorable.

Another official dispatch reports fighting yesterday and today between Uskub Dere, to the east of Kirk Klisseh and Visa. Two battalions of Bulgarians were cut off from the main body and sustained heavy losses.

Fighting continues between the Rival Cuban Candidates and Scene in Havana.

Havana, Cuba, Oct 29.—Wholesale trouble is expected to mark the election of a President, Nov. 1st, as the followers of the rival candidates, Alfredo Zayas and General Menocal, are extremely bitter towards each other, and more riots like those of last Friday morning are probable. Gen. Menocal, the Conservative candidate, declares he has all six provinces won if the election is fair and that the Zayastas, in despair are trying to steal the election by violence and intimidation.

WILSON OPPOSES FREE TRADE

Emphasizes Position on Tariff and Declares Democratic Party Does Not Intend to Disturb Legitimate Business.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 29.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, in three speeches filled with satirical attacks on his opponents, emphasized in North Jersey tonight that he was not a believer in free trade and that the Democratic party did not intend to disturb legitimate business or the prosperity of the country if put into power.

The Democratic nominee declared those of his opponents who constantly asked him to define his position on the tariff "could read the English language."

He said he had repeated time and again in his speeches his policy of cutting out of the tariff merely the special privileges lodged in it. "No thoughtful Democrat," he added, "has advocated free trade."

To President Taft's statements published today with regard to the panic of the early nineties, Governor Wilson made an extended reply first at Montclair, where he addressed a big audience, and again at Newark, where he spoke tonight. He said it was wrong to attribute that panic to tariff legislation "because the panic started before the tariff bill was enacted." He attributed the panic to Republican currency legislation.

"I find I am invited to return to my old occupation," said the Governor. "I used to be a teacher of history and I find it necessary to teach it some more. I find myself abashed in facing the necessity of teaching it to the President of the United States.

"And when the President of the United States makes himself responsible for the statement that the panic of 1893 was due to a tariff bill that came a year afterward and came because of Mr. Cleveland's administration, I can only express my deep regret that the President of the United States has not read the history of the United States.

"Any statement that Mr. Taft makes, I believe to be made in honesty, but this statement, if he has

GEORGE G. THOMPSON KILLED

Division Freight Agent of Southern Railway at Greensboro Shotby Wm. F. Blair, Chief Clerk, Who Tried to Kill Self

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 29.—George G. Thompson, division freight agent of the Southern Railway with headquarters here and widely known and connected in the South, was shot and killed by William F. Blair, chief clerk in his office, at noon today. An effort by Blair to end his own life when advised by a physician that Thompson was dying, was frustrated by the physician, who wrenched from his hands a 32-calibre revolver freshly loaded. When carried to jail he muttered in broken sentences regret of his action and declared he had killed his best friend. Later he lapsed into a semi-comatose state, brought on, his physician said, "by the use of whiskey during the past week."

Thompson was shot down in Blair's home after he had responded to a request by telephone of his assailant that he come to his home for a few minutes. The request by Blair was the result of a note delivered during the morning and signed by Thompson, in which Mr. Thompson stated that, effective November 1st, the services of Blair would be no longer desired in the division freight offices. Five minutes after Thompson entered the home the first shot rang out, and when officers forced an entrance Thompson's prostrate body lay in the reception hall. Five shots had been fired and every one had entered the body, four perforating the abdomen.

George G. Thompson was a native of Culpeper, Va., and was 48 years of age. He entered the services of the Southern at the age of 12 years and for the past 15 years had been division freight agent. He is a brother of J. S. B. Thompson, formerly general freight agent of the Southern and now a business man of Atlanta, and who is ill in a Richmond hospital; also of Richard Thompson, a Washington attorney. About three years ago he married Miss Holly, daughter of a Baptist minister in Atlanta.

WILMINGTON'S RECORD

Wilmington has made History before. She is making it today. HOW? In raising a $10,000 Fund to help finance a candidate for the Presidency who stands for RIGHT and JUSTICE.

There is a great Principle involved. Wilmington is proving to the whole country that a clean compaign can be financed by the plain PEOPLE without the contaminating aid of the SELFISH INTERESTS.

Wilmington now has about 600 contributors to this fund, and needs ONLY:

Men	Each
14 to contribute	$25.00
29 to contribute	10.00
146 to contribute	2.00
425 to contribute	1.00

Doesn't it mean something to you for your city to stand preeminent as the pioneer of this GREAT PRINCIPLE, which will endure and which will compel the selection of Presidential candidates whose qualifications must irresistably appeal to the financial support of the COMMON PEOPLE?

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE FOR WILMINGTON

CYCLONIC FINISH TO LOCAL CANVASS

Wilson Finance Committee is Very Much Encouraged Over Outlook.

YOUNG FOLKS GETTING BUSY

Headquarters Opened at Front and Princess—Woodrow Wilson Day Saturday—Guarantee Subscriptions Made

With only four days remaining, the campaign committee in charge of the ten thousand dollar fund for Wilson and Marshall feel encouraged over the outlook and is preparing to make a whirlwind finish by Saturday night when Woodrow Wilson Day will be appropriately celebrated at Wilson headquarters, Front and Princess streets.

The subscriptions yesterday amounted to only about $100 in cash, but many public-spirited Wilmingtonians are handing in guarantee subscriptions that will be available at the finish and if the people of Wilmington generally do their part in the cash subscriptions from day to day, the balance will be easy. The team workers are exhorted to best effort from now until Saturday night and the goal will certainly be reached.

Several large banners will be flung to the breezes at Front and Princess streets today and from then on Chairman McGirt and the Wilson Committee will keep open house at the headquarters in the store formerly occupied by the J. W. Fleet Company. On Saturday night a rally will be held at which Governor Wilson will deliver a personal message to the people of Wilmington through W. P. Stacy, Esq., of the local bar. There will be other exercises and everybody will be welcomed at headquarters on that night.

Meantime, the boys and girls should get busy in the watch contest. A fine timepiece of solid gold with pin or fob as desired is going to some bright boy or girl with very little effort. While several young folks are at work for the prize, Adrian Rourk is leading thus far with only $5.00. The others have not yet shown their hands but the contest is easy and will be won with very little effort. Think of it! A $35 watch for less than four days' earnest, persistent work after school or business hours. The field is inviting to young folks and they should get busy today by phoning Chairman McGirt and getting a supply of contributors' buttons that will make soliciting easy. Now is the time to begin. Tomorrow may be too late, but those who enter today and give persistent work to the committee have every certainty of the prize by outstripping their fellows. Or, maybe it will be some bright young lady who will enter today and carry off the coveted prize. Now is the time to begin. A word to the wise is sufficient. Very little money, it seems, is going to take the prize, so why not make the effort?

The committees reported last night as follows, in cash subscriptions:

W. M. Cumming, Chairman

Donald MacRae (second subscription)	$50.00
M. W. Jacobi (second subscription)	$10.00

D. H. Howes, Jr., Chairman

Mrs. Rena MacRae (second subscription)	5.00

FIX INTERNATIONAL TIME

Will Be Established In Europe and America by Wireless

New York, Oct. 29.—The exact time at a given moment in America and Europe will be established shortly by wireless telegraphy. About the middle of November it will be possible for the first time to establish with precision the longitudes of America and Europe in their relation to each other by the exchange of wireless signals between the great station at Arlington, Va., and the Eiffel tower in Paris and other European stations.

Commissioner P. H. Hough, at the International Time Conference here, declared that the observatory in Washington was now distributing time with errors of only one thousandth part of a second. Hitherto European and American time has been established by cable allowances being made for loss of time in transmission and it has been fixed only three times, 1866, 1870 and 1872.

MURDERED ON WEDDING EVE

ed the money he had given the woman was missing, as well as several articles of jewelry, revealing robbery as a probable motive for the tragedy. A trail of blood led to a kitchen of the apartment. There was found a "billy" which Worthen said Conway had once exhibited to Miss Singer with the remark, "This is what I knock 'em out with."

According to Worthen's story he met Miss Singer in Baltimore several months ago, where he was employed with a street car company.

Worthen is 26 years of age. He will be held pending the outcome of the coroner's investigation today. Miss Singer was 29 years of age.

GOV. BROWN WILL ACT.

State of Georgia Will Take Hand in Strike if Necessary.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 29.—The attitude of Governor Joseph M. Brown in the event of a failure to settle the controversy between the trainmen and officials of the Georgia Railroad by arbitration, was indicated in a statement by the Georgia executive today. The Governor stated that he had prepared a proclamation to insure peace in the event of the general sympathetic strike threatened three weeks ago. He added that if such an emergency should arise again, "the State will not await the slow process of arbitration, but will promptly meet the issue tendered her."

In the proclamation which the Governor had prepared he called upon all Superior Court judges in the territory affected to issue orders to the sheriffs to swear in a sufficient number of deputies to prevent "the commerce and travel of the people being unlawfully impeded."

No advices were received today from Judge Martin A. Knapp and Commissioner Charles P. Neill, who were called upon Sunday to appoint the third member of the Georgia Railroad strike arbitration board. The two members already named are President Charles Wickersham, of the Atlanta & West Point Railroad, and F. A. Burgess, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

CRAIG AND SETTLE.

They May Meet in Joint Discussion at Rutherfordton Today.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 29.—If there is a joint discussion of political issues at Rutherfordton tomorrow between Hon. Locke Craig, Democratic, and Hon. Thomas Settle, Taft Republican candidate for Governor, it will be through no pre-arrangement by Democratic State Chairman C. A. Webb, or purpose of the State Committee for any such joint discussion to take place in this campaign. This is the statement made today by Chairman Webb. He says the engagement for Mr. Craig to speak in Rutherfordton on this date was made without any knowledge that Mr. Settle was also billed to speak there on the same date. He says there is every indication that there will be a joint discussion as Mr. Craig is in no way averse to meeting Mr. Settle on the hustings.

OVERLOOKED $50,000

Bandits Who Held Up M., K. & T. Train Secured $25,000

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 29.—That the three men who held up and robbed Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train No. 9 at Wirth, Okla., early today overlooked a package containing $50,000 in currency in the express car safe, is declared by express company officials tonight. Just how much loot was secured the officials declare they do not know, but it is reported the amount will reach $25,000.

The bandits had succeeded in eluding several posses up to a late hour tonight and are believed to have made their way to the Winding Stair mountains, the most primitive section of Oklahoma, and used as a hiding place for the lawless for years.

MOBILIZE AT CHARLESTON.

Three Divisions of Atlantic Fleet Will Join in Celebration.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The first, third and fourth divisions of the Atlantic fleet will mobilize at Charleston, S. C., the week of November 17th. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Winthrop today told Mayor Grace, of Charleston, and a committee of citizens that these vessels would take part in a celebration to be held at the South Carolina port.

The battleships are: First division, Florida, Delaware, Michigan, North Dakota, Utah; second division, Georgia, Nebraska, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Virginia; fourth division, Missouri, Idaho, Minnesota, Mississippi, and Ohio.

CALLS ON HIS STATE.

President Taft Doesn't Want Ohio to Fail Him in Election.

Washington, Oct. 29. — "No man would care to have his State fail him, but wholly apart from selfish reasons, I want to see Ohio go Republican by a large majority," said President Taft in a letter to Fred A. Geier, of Cincinnati, made public today at the White House. The President attacked Governor Wilson and the Democratic party on the tariff question, and said that Ohio would suffer particularly if the present tariff protecting the steel, wool and pottery businesses were disturbed.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—Howard E. Edwards, the train bandit who held up and robbed the New York limited train on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad near New Orleans on the night of September 4th, pleaded guilty in the Federal court today to charges of robbing the mails and assaulting mail clerks. Judge Foster deferred sentence.

New York, Oct. 29.—I. C. Stump, a retired mining millionaire, is dead here as the result of injuries received last night in a fall down an elevator shaft. He was 60 years old. Mr. Stump entered the lobby of the Broadway apartment house where he lived and walking hurriedly, plunged into the open shaft. The car had been raised to the second floor for repairs.

tors conceived it their duty to vote for Greely, although he was dead. The Senate decided that the Georgia vote should be counted, but the House voted that it should not. It is contended that since Congress amended the manner of canvassing the ballots in 1887 as a result of the Hayes-Tilden contest, votes for a candidate dying between the November election and the meeting of the electoral college on the second Monday in January must be counted by Congress unless they are held to be votes "not regularly given". The law says that "no electoral vote or votes from any State, which shall have been regularly given * * * * from which but one return has been received, shall be rejected."

The most serious situation could develop, it is said, from the death of a choice of the electoral college between the time the colleges voted and the inauguration. The constitution authorizes Congress to provide by law for the devolution of the duties of President in cases of "removal, death, resignation or inability" of a President and Pice President, but does not declare that officer shall act as President in case of anything unforeseen occurring to the President-elect or the Vice President-elect, or expressly authorizes Congress to do so.

Some parliamentarians say, however, that Congress would have power to act under the clause which enables it to pass such laws as are necessary and proper to carry into effect the powers granted the Federal government.

Should there be no election of a Vice-President by an electoral college and a Vice-Presidential candidate die subsequent to their voting, the selection would be limited to the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes under the constitution.

Should a Vice-Presidential candidate, who was one of the two highest on the list, die, Senators of his party might be required to vote for the candidate of the other party. A Vice-President elected under such circumstances would become President of the electoral college if the House of Representatives had not elected a President by March 4th.

WILSON IS CERTAIN

Brief Summary of Outlook for Success Of Democracy

(By John Fordham).

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 26.—The campaign has reached a point where sentiment has practically crystalized. Most of the people have made up their minds which way they are going to vote. There is less doubt in the mind of the American people as to the outcome of this election than there has been in many years regarding the choice of a President of the United States.

Ask whom you will and the only dispute you will find is as to which candidate will run second in the race. Wilson is always first choice. There are hopeful souls brave enough to claim some particular State for Taft or Roosevelt, but you will travel far and talk to many men before you will meet a man who sincerely believes that either Taft or Roosevelt will carry enough States to defeat Governor Wilson. It is Wilson first, and take your choice for the runner-up. There is abundant evidence, to say nothing of the innumerable "straws which show which way the wind is blowing," indicating not only that Governor Wilson will win, but that he will win by the greatest plurality in a generation. There are those who maintain Wilson will carry every State in the United States, and there is justification for this prediction.

When you recall that in 1908 the united Republican party had trouble in defeating Colonel Bryan, the Democratic candidate, it is difficult to figure out how either Taft or Roosevelt, who are now dividing that party, can carry any State at the North. The "solid South," of course, is still overwhelmingly solid. If the most astute students of politics were asked right now to say what State Roosevelt would carry, for instance, what State could he claim? California? Only a day or so ago, Senator Works, of that State, a life-long Republican, repudiated both Taft and Roosevelt and espoused Wilson. Rudolph Spreckles is back from San Francisco and positively declares that Wilson will carry California handsomely. Many other reports come from that State to the same effect.

Illinois? Every one familiar with the situation in this State knows that it is impossible for either Roosevelt or Taft to win in Illinois; that Deneen and Roosevelt are calling each other liars, and that the old Republican organization is so torn with dissensions that it is on the cards that thousands on each side will vote for Wilson for fear that the other may win.

Conceding, however, that Roosevelt polls all the votes his managers claim for him, he cannot win in Illinois because he will still fall short of the Democratic strength of 1908 and 1910.

The fact is, Illinois is safely Democratic for both National and State tickets for another reason than the dissensions between the Taft and Roosevelt factions of the old Republican party. If either Taft or Roosevelt were running alone in opposition to Wilson, Illinois would still go for Wilson. There are enough progressive Republicans who have become disgusted with the old party's attitude toward the tariff and the trusts to ensure Governor Wilson's election beyond a doubt.

The same situation is even more marked in other States. Wilson may not carry every State in the Union, polishing that wonderful feat, but he will come mighty near accommade it, he has made in ignorance, because the panic of 1893 can be shown to have arisen out of currency legislation of a government absolutely controlled by the Republican party. The panic of 1893 was on its way before Mr. Cleveland became President and it matured merely in the first part of his administration and would have stopped if the Senate of the United States had yielded more promptly to the advice of the administration.

"It is unworthy of men in public life to mislead the public thought after such a fashion, but I don't doubt the verdict on the 5th of November."

"I don't limit my view by the Democratic party. I look through the Democratic party to the destinies of the United States and if the Democratic party does not serve you after you have tried it, reject it and I will join you in rejecting it."

The Governor declared that the programme of the other two parties were "programmes of postponement."

"One of the evidences of the weakness of the regular Republican party," he said, "is its misstatement and manifestations of despair on the bill boards. They say Governor Wilson does not sufficiently define his position on the tariff. All we have to do to know Governor Wilson's position on the tariff is to be able to read the English language. In almost every speech I have defined by exact position. I made it clear in a speech in Philadelphia last night and yet one of the papers this morning in Philadelphia announced that I had declared for free trade.

"For those who are curious or cannot read English, I will explain my views again.

"In the first place, I have not heard a single thoughtful Democrat declare for free trade. I have heard every Democrat declaring for a policy of going through all the schedules of the tariff and finding all the illegitimate concealed privileges and cutting every one of them out, leaving absolutely safe, every sound and healthful fibre of American business."

The Governor said the Democratic party's programme was one by which America would be "liberated", not "embarrassed."

"If crises come," he added, "if panic comes on top of that they can come only through those who to our infinite peril, control the credit of America. It is not a prediction of panic which they make. It is a threat. I want you to mark it and watch it as a threat of men who, if they dare, can show they hold the credit of America in their hands."

In each speech today the Governor made plain the interest he has in the Legislative and Congressional tickets in New Jersey. He pleaded for support of the Democratic Legislative candidates so as to insure the election to the United States Senate of William Hughes. Tomorrow Mr. Wilson will devote to campaigning in South Jersey, where he will make three speeches.

AFFAIRS AT RALEIGH.

Barbee Residence for Sale—Gypsy Colony—Ringling Show.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 29.—In connection with the winding up of the estate of the late E. B. Barbee, by executors, the splendid Barbee residence on North Blount street, has been sold for $15,500. Its estimated market value is $20,000.

Six typical gypsy wagons teeming with motley women and children and the gay colored paraphernalia of these wandering people passed through Raleigh's principal streets last evening and were watched with keenest interest. As the wagons stopped along Fayetteville street for the grown-ups to do shopping of one sort and another in the stores the dirty children delved into the garbage cans along the curbs seeking whatever they could discover that they cared to take away.

Ringling's circus was in full swing in Raleigh today and the crowd here is something immense. The circus is showing out at the State Fair grounds. It is an interesting fact that the fair grounds are being used by the circus because the fair management offered this inducement in consideration of the circus staying away from Raleigh during State Fair week. For two years a circus has dropped in for some day of fair week and, the fair management claims, seriously affected the financial interests of the fair. So this time Secretary Pogue went at the show people with a proposition that if they would just stay away from Raleigh fair week they could have the fair grounds free of charge for a later exhibition here. This is the first time the fair grounds have been used for this purpose.

Washington, Oct. 29.—President Taft today commuted to expire on December 23rd the five-year sentence of J. Otis Wilson, who pleaded guilty June 14th, of making a false entry in the books of the People's National Bank of Salem, New York, of which he was cashier.

P. E. MISSIONARY COUNCIL

Department of Sewanee Meets at Charlotte—Interesting Address by Bishop of South Carolina. Woman's Auxiliary.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 29.—The opening session of the sixth missionary council of the Department of Sewanee of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was held in St. Peter's church, this city, this evening. The fact that this is the first time the Council has been held in North Carolina adds special interest to this meeting in this State.

Several hundred delegates, including bishops and other clergymen, laymen and women have arrived already to attend the sessions of the council, and these represent the 14 dioceses included in the Sewanee, or fourth missionary department of the Church.

Rt. Rev. J. B. Cheshire, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, presided this evening and the session began with the processional hymn, during the singing of which the choir and many of the ministers entered the church. This hymn was followed by the recital of the creed and the collects and the singing of another hymn.

Bishop Cheshire delivered to the delegates a message of cordial welcome to Charlotte.

"The Mission of the Church and National Life", was the subject presented and the first speaker was Rt. Rev. W. E. Guery, D. D., Bishop of South Carolina. He presented this subject from the standpoint of what the church is doing for our own country and he began his address with the statement that if the church is to fulfil her full mission to the world, she must be the church of the whole Nation and must use her efforts to make Christians who will be true to the National life of the country in which they live. He said further that the church must have a part in securing civic improvement, social betterment, and industrial peace in the world. In this connection, he said the church is forced to face the question "how far is the Church of God justified in taking part in a political campaign?" The answer which he gave to this question was that the Church of God cannot afford to refrain from taking part in every campaign where questions or moral and spiritual import are involved, such as those affecting the laws of marriage and divorce, those affecting the labor of women and children in factories, the question of juvenile courts, because of the duty of the church to give Jesus Christ to the whole man. Bishop Guery then spoke of the necessity of organized co-operation in Christian work and said, in this connection that while there might be a saint in every house in Charlotte, the whole city would go to the bad without organized efforts upon the part of these saints. The forces of evil, he said, are better organized now than ever before, and the same must be true of the church in order for her to do her full work.

"The church," he said, in closing, "can affect National life and yet be true to her mission as a church."

Rev. B. L. Ancell, for a number of years a missionary in Yaugchow, China, delivered the other address of the evening, and he spoke of the church's contribution to National life in the Orient. He emphasized especially this contribution of the church from the education, social, political and spiritual point of view.

The principal feature of the council tomorrow will be the report of Rev. R. W. Patton, secretary of the Department of Sewanee.

Tomorrow evening, during the dinner for laymen, J. C. Buxton, of Winston-Salem, will preside, and a number of addresses will be delivered.

The woman's auxiliary to the Board of Missions in the Department of Sewanee is holding sessions at this time also.

MILL MEN FIRED FIRST.

In Grabow Riot, According to Witnesses Heard Yesterday.

Lake Charles, La., October 28.—Testimony that the mill men and not the members of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers fired the first shot in the Grabow labor riot, that John Helton, one of the defendants, was not a participant in the riots and that Mazork Galloway, one of the company owing the Galloway mill, in front of which the battle occurred, was among those who fired on the union men, was given by witnesses for the defense today in the trial for murder of A. L. Emerson and his eight fellow members of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers.

S. O. Cooley said that Helton spent the day of the riot with him, and although both witnessed a part of the fight, that Helton did not engage in it.

Nanie and Christine Cooley, daughters of the witness, corrobborated his testimony.

Miss Dorice LeBleu, another, girl who testified, said that not only the first shot came from the mill men, but that two shots were fired from the mill offices before any answering shot came from the union men. The witness said that she was in the crowd when the battle began, but could not distinguish those who she said fired from the mill offices.

Claude Peyton testified that the first shot came from the mill offices.

Among those who followed from the gallery of the mill office, he said, was Mazork Galloway, one of the owners of the mill.

THE PEANUT CROP.

Crop at Least 33 1-3 Per Cent. Less Than Last Year's Yield.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 29.—The estimate recently made by Mr. J. S. Funchess, of Wilmington, that the peanut crop will be at least 25 per cent. short is very conservative in the opinion of Mr. Levy Batson, who is one of the largest growers of peanuts in Pender county and who has been over the peanut belt in North Carolina and Virginia and says the crop is at least 33 1-3 per cent. less than last year. This applies to both North Carolina and Virginia peas. He attributes this shortage to the wet Spring and dry Fall. Mr. Batson has 140 acres and speaks from broad experience, having cultivated peas for the past 26 years and says the crop this year is the poorest he has ever seen. The vines are good, but the yield is exceptionally poor.

KINSTON NEWS NOTES.

Fund For Dormitory Grows—Christian Convention—Speeking.

Kinston, N. C., Oceober 29.—The fund for the Lenoir county gift dormitory at the Kennedy Memorial home, a branch of the Thomasville orphage to be established at Falling Creek, was increased by $310.50 at a mass meeting in LaGrange. To keep up the fight for the cause a committee was appointed to further sloicit funds in Moseley Hall township. The meeting took place in the Baptist church of LaGrange, and was presided over by County Superintendent of Schools Kinsey. The meeting was addressed by Dr. B. W. Spilman, Dr. J. M. Parrott and Hon. N. J. Rouse, all of Kinston. All of the speakers enthused their hearers with the subject of the Kennedy home, a splendid donation to the Baptists of the State by Capt. and Mrs. W. L. Kennedy, of this county, its value to the State and county and the importance of Lenoir county's taking action by the erection of a creditable building at Cedar Dell. The fund in the county has now reached a total of $4,254.38.

The State convention of Christian Churches will meet in Farmville Monday night, November 18, and continue until Thursday night. Preparations are being made for the largest gathering of workers of the denomination in its history in this State. In addition to a well-prepared programme by men and women from North Carolina, there will be addresses by experts from St. Louis, Kansas City, Cincinnati and Virginia. The church in Farmville will entertain the convention, with the cooperation of members of churches in nearby cities and towns.

Mrs. William I. Herring died at her home in Falling Creek, of pneumonia. She was buried in the family burying-ground there, Rev. C. W. Blanchard of this city, conducting the funeral service. Mrs. Herring was the widow of a well-known farmer of Falling Creek, and was herself connected with one of the county's oldest families. She leaves several children.

Hon. F. M. Simmons will address the citizens of Kinston and surrounding country in the Court House here Saturday, in the interest of his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate. The Simmons men in Kinston and the county intend to make the Senator's visit notable by having an old-1fashioned rally day, and the Second Infantry Band has been engaged to furnish music.

The Democratic county candidates began the last week of their canvass with a meeting at Falling Creek today. Tomorrow they will visit Trent township. The canvass culminates here on Saturday, when a number of speakers will address the people at a meeting in the Court House in the afternoon.

A fire in the basement of the First Christian Church in this city put the furnace out of commission, did other damage which cannot be estimated at present, and gave stubborn resistance to the firemen because of its inaccessibility. The blaze started while the janitor, who had made a fire an hour previous, was out of the building. The sleepers under the floor of the auditorium were scorched, but the asbestos lining prevented the flooring from being burned through. The flames leaping up through the registers did little damage, but a great deal of smoke blackened the walls considerably. The firemen flooded the basement, and two feet of water was in the furnace room before the fire was finally extinguished, inflammables in that compartment keeping the blaze alive. The damage, which was not heavy, is covered by insurance.

The home of Mrs. Hattie Arthur, in Institute township, was destroyed by fire which originated between the ceiling and the roof of the dwelling, probably from matches carried there by rats. The loss was $1,500, with $700 insurance. Only half of the furnishings were saved.

WAKE FOREST SHOOTING.

Frank Powers' Wound is Serious—Was Shot Twice.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wake Forest, N. C., Oct. 29.—Last night about 10:30 o'clock, Frank Powers, a young man of the village, and a son of Dr. Powers, a prominent physician of this place, was shot twice by Gordon Rhodes, a freshman in college here. Powers lies now in the college hospital in a grave condition with, possibly, some chances of recovery. One bullet took effect in the left side just aboye the hip bone rather to the front and went almost through him, lodging in the right side and cuting the intestines. The other entered the top of the shoulder and went downward, going quite a little depth.

According to the best information that can be had at the present, the facts are about as follows: Rhodes, the Freshman, had been to a social function of some kind and was returning to his room when Powers and one or two other young men came out from the side of the road with masks on, it is thought, to chase him. The shooting followed. The person or persons who were with Powers fled and it is not known definitely who they were yet. Rhodes who did the shooting, was the only student connected with the affair, unless the unknown parties who were with Powers were students, as Powers is not a member of the student body. While the most profound regret is felt over the tragic affair, such frivolities cannot bring better results.

CLARK AT SANFORD.

Attacks Simmons and Kitchin and Makes Usual Appeal for Votes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Sanford, N. C., Oct. 29.—Chief Justice Walter Clark spoke here tonight at the town hall in the interest of his candidacy for United States Senator. He was introduced by D. E. McIver, chairman of Lee County Democratic Executive Committee, in a few well chosen words. Judge Clark was heard by a large audience of most intelligent citizens, who paid marked attention to his speech. Judge Clark paid his respects to both Senator Simmons and Governor Kitchin. He said that Senator Simmons' record stamped him as a reactionary while Governor Kitchin had no record. The judge argued manfully that Senator Simmons and Governor Kitchin both, while they were in Congress, missed hundreds of opportunities to serve the people. These he enumerated. Simmons, he says, has made a record, but has voted against his party, Kitchin, he says, talks big and does nothing.

During his speech, Judge Clark made his usual appeal to the Old Confederate soldiers, rehearsing in the same old way that every politician has done for the past 40 years, the story of their heroism. He said that our Senators and Congressmen have not been mindful of the interests of the old soldiers. Along this line he advocated United States pensions for the Confederate soldier as well as the Federal soldier.

The attacks of the speaker on Senator Simmons were practically the same as those made by Governor Kitchin, when he spoke here several weeks ago. The tenor of the judge's speech was that he (Clark) was the candidate of the Progressive Democracy and that Senator Simmons was the candidate of the reactionaries, while Governor Kitchin simply wants to be Senator and has no record on which to stand.

East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 28.—With a speech here tonight W. J. Bryan completed a tour of Illinois in the interest of Governor Wilson and other Democratic candidates. He later departed for Oklahoma, where he is to make another series of addresses.

"On the eve of every Presidential election the Republicans violently accuse the Democrats of being the cause of panics," he said at McLeansboro, "but the last money panic, which caused many banks to stop payment came under a Republican President and a Republican Senate and House of Representatives.

"There is no difference between Republicans and Mr. Roosevelt's supporters on the vital issues of the campaign. They hold the same views on the tariff and the same views on trusts.

"I am willing to sign as true, without looking at it, any statement Republicans make concerning Roosevelt and any statement Roosevelt's friends make concerning Taft."

Who got knocked through the ropes?

Do your saving all the time in order to be able to do your Christmas shopping early.

The experience of General Felix Diaz teaches us that we ought not to start an insurrection without police protection.

In Venezuela they have a fraternity called the "High and Ancient Order of the Bouncing Bull." No doubt its members are Bull Moosers.

They are having cold weather in the Northwest, but it will not cut off the large crop of Democrats that has been produced out there.

A Wilmington man calls himself Bluff because his wife never fails to call him as soon as he starts out the front door for a stroll downtown after tea.

Mr. George W. Perkins complains that people get his name wrong. That is of little importance but it is highly important for Mr. Perkins not to lend his name to doubtful causes.

A soldier who deserted the army to get married deserted his wife in two months to go back to the army. He seems to have prefered military discipline to matrimonial management.

A man who claims that he was kin to Taft recently died in Michigan. If the poor fellow had lived he might have worried himself to death over what is going to happen to his kinsman next Tuesday.

Turkish rugs and Turkish towels will continue to be made in this country in spite of the fact that the Balkan coalition seems to be keeping Turkey so busy she has no time to make rugs and towels.

Now there is a widespread quarrel as to who was the original Wilson man. We feel a delicacy about getting into this wrangle, but didn't the original Wilson man first think of it after he saw it in The Star?

The severer the penalty for what we have done the greater is our sorrow and the deeper our fepentance. A lot of grief in this world is vain regret for getting caught in a scrape with serious consequences for those who are guilty.

A Michigan girl married a fellow and applied for a divorce next day. The probability is that he never laid the kindling by the stove so she could make the fire the first morning. A man who won't make the fire certainly ought to split the kindling.

What are the resources of your town, your county or your community? For what are they peculiarly adapted? These are things that every man ought to study, and when they become known they become opportunities that ought to be seized and put into effect.

No politician who has never done a thing to a trust has no right to claim that the trusts are fighting him. The trusts only fight those who fight them. They respect the inactivity of noncombatants who do nothing but talk. The barking dog which never bites is regarded as a canine humorist.

Donations by trusts to Republican campaign funds are but a small percentage of the benefits which the beneficiaries received from the Republican tariff. Mr. Carnegie once stated that the Steel Trust was a tariff beneficiary to the amount of $15,000,000 a year. The Republican party enabled the Steel Trust to take that much out of the pockets of people who buy steel and iron products in a monopolized market.

VOTES CAST TO THE WINDS.

A vote for either the Republican or the Progressive nominees for Governor next Tuesday will be a vote thrown away. When great issues are at stake a voter ought to line up like a man and take a hand in settling the big problems of the day. National policies now constitute the main issues while State problems are subordinate to the great national problems that affect the welfare of the American people and the safety of their constitutional government.

While men are concerned over the grave questions that involve the destinies of his party, its nominee, the Hon. Tom Settle, is lugging around the little old makeshift of "local option." With eloquence worthy of a great cause, he is wasting it on something that is neither an issue nor a problem in this campaign. While the great band is making music on the big instruments and the bass drum, the Republican candidate for governor of North Carolina, is beating a tom-tom and tooting the bazoo. Why should a man put on a jimswinger coat and dignify his appearance with a high standing collar, when he is harping on a string that makes only a squeaking noise in the great concert?

The G. O. P. is on trial for its life. It is charged with the capital offense of standpattery. It is accused of partnership with predatory plutocrats, and its one-term President is in imminent danger of being repudiated. Teddy has assaulted the big elephant and its rider with "the spear that knows no brother," but in the thick of the conbat we hear from Mr. Settle no eloquent deliverance of the big gun kind, but way back in the rear he is making a noise like peas in a tin cup. The Bull Moose has tread heavily across the continent and back again, shaking the earth with the thunders of New Nationalism. He has attacked the chief of Republicanism and has preached doctrines that are contrary to all the known principles and traditions of the party of Abraham Lincoln. He has advocated policies subversive of the American patriots' construction of the constitution. He is standing for a third term, contrary to all the traditions handed down from revolutionary sires. He is standing for the establishment of a precedent for the Mexicanization of the United States of America. He represents the startling propaganda of a third term, a faurth term, a fifty term, or a life term. Above the crack of the pistol of John Schrank and the roar of battle sounding the death knell of privilege, we hear all these mighty and momentous problems being discussed, but on the outskirts of the great throng, Mr. Settle has invited North Carolinians to hear him play a tattoo on the head of a whiskey barrel.

Why, in the midst of a campaign for the restowal of the government to the people, should any North Carolina Republican or Democrat, take Mr. Settle seriously? He has set back the hands on the clock of Republicanism in North Carolina by injecting an absurd proposition into the midst of the powerful questions involved in a National campaign. His party in the Nation and State is rent in twain and toppling. He is, threefore, powerless to emphasize any issue not involving those which have broken a great and powerful party into two factions holding many views diametrically opposed. His hands are tied by the small shreds of a remnant of his party in this State. He promises "local option" and is as powerless to deliver the goods as any ten year old boy in the graded schools of Wilmington. A local optionist of any party who votes for Mr. Settle would be simply throwing away a vote in the great battle of ballots to be fought next Tuesday. A voter may as well poke his ballot up a gum stump, for Mr. Settle is engaged in the stunt of whisling against the roar of a cyclone.

We hope no North Carolinian is going to cut such a dido as to cast a vote for local option when the man they vote for could never deliver the gods till the crack of doom. Join the militant Democracy in its magnificent triumph for the election of Woodrow Wilson. Get with the winners and trust the Democracy for a popular referendum on any great question upon which the sovereign voters of North Carolina desire to pass for themselves. Local option is one of those great moral questions to be decided by all the people without regard to politics. No loyal Republican would want such a question made a party issue, for it would divide his party. No loyal Democrat would want to make it a party issue, for it would mean its division. It is a moral question to be decided by the people on the question of the success or failure of prohibition as a means of regulating the whiskey traffic. Local optionists would win nothing by dividing on political lines. Prohibitionists would win nothing by dividing on political lines. Therefore, prohibition will stand till all the people decide to pass upon that problem outside their parties. Consequently, a vote for Mr. Settle would be like casting a feather in a gale.

As for ou rdistinguished and eloquent townsman, the Hon. Iredell Meares, he is standing with the already vanquished hosts at Armageddon. The so-called Progressive party offers us nothing good that cannot be secured through the constitutional Democratic party, but the Third Term Party proposes to open the Pandora box of unlimited terms for President. Colonel Roosevelt, for whom Mr. Meares stands for President, is ambitious to violate the third term traditions of the fathers of Republic vouchsafed to the keeping of patriotic sons. He does that in the face of Mexico's experience with five terms of Porfirio Diaz, whose hold had to be loosed by a bloody revolution which was later to plunge that unfortunate country into the maelstrom of anarchy and ruin.

A vote for Roosevelt, third termism and so-called New Nationalism is a vote for future insurrection. A vote for Roosevelt is a vote for a President who so scandalized even two terms that the great Democratic party, the bulwark of the people, is today standing for only one term for American Presidents. Roosevelt used government patronage during his first term to nominate and elect himself. He used trust money to elect himself, and he used the power of the Presidential office and the patronage of the government to name his successor. He is using all the powers of a monstrous ambition and his irresistible cunning to beat the man whom he made President and to capture the government for himself and his aims. Outside of making the Republic his satrapy, he is urging a policy to legalize unlawful trusts, and put them in the care and keeping of the President and a commission to be appointed by himself. A vote for Roosevelt will be a vote for the Mexicanization of America, and it will be the first step towards hoisting the red flag in the Republic of George Washington. A vote for Roosevelt may as well be rammed down the throat of a roaring lion.

AMBITION, NOT PRINCIPLE.

There is every evidence that Roosevelt's fight for the nomination at Chicago was urged on by ambition and that no principle was involved in his attempt to secure a third term at the hands of the Republican party. That is evidenced in his disappointment an not securing the nomination over Taft. He now denounces the Republican party which twice honored him, and whose honor he was seeking for a third term. Republicanism was all right as long as he could get its favor and use it as his own, but when it rejected him it invited his curses. The Greensboro Record thus gets further evidence from a Roosevelt paper:

"Roosevelt contends that it is a principle he is standing for and nothing else. Let's see. The Philadelphia North American, a paper that has been and is still supporting him, said in an article written by the editor about the time of the Chicago convention that enough delegates to control the convention met in caucus and decided that neither Taft nor Roosevelt could be elected if nominated and that a committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Roosevelt and place the matter before him. The editor of the North American was a member of this committee. They saw Mr. Roosevelt, told him their business and further told him that if he would withraw he might name the man to be nominated and the convention would put him through. Not only this, but the convention wanted him—Roosevelt—to write the platform and it would be adopted without the least change. All this Roosevelt declined and he bolted the party. This shows beyond the least doubt that personal ambition and not principle is guiding him."

What the Philadelphia North America says was current news from Chicago at the time the Republican convention was in session. North Carolina Republicans and Roosevelt supporters brought back the same news with the exception that they say that Roosevelt declined the proposition because the convention would not reorganize as he dictated. He believed himself powerful enough to rule or ruin the Republican party and he set about to ruin it when it would not let him rule it.

The strongest evidence that Roosevelt's fight is one of ambition instead of principle, is that his platform contains no principle that is not destroyed by third termism and propositions dangerous to our constitutional government.

WILSON AND CRAIG.

There is every reason why every Democrat and patriotic Republican and Progressive in North Carolina should vote for Woodrow Wilson for President and Locke Craig for Governor. The Democratic nominee for Governor is representative of the people, and he has made a great campaign in their behalf in this momentous National contest. Truly the Charlotte Chronicle says:

"Locke Craig deserves the biggest majority ever given a Democratic Governor. He is clean. He is honest. He is able. He is true. He has served the party and he has served the people. He has been faithful. Work hard this week for a big majority for Locke Craig, Woodrow Wilson and the congressional and county ticket. Vote straight."

Governor Wilson, the Democracy's candidate for President, is the greatest man who has been before the country for Presidtnt in scores of years. He is able and stands for modern principles to meet the needs of popular government and to safeguard the Republic. Colonel Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, has come to this conclusion:

"Between now and election day it behooves every good Democrat to prove himself a good Democrat by keeping up a lively interest in the campaign despite his confidence in the result. And upon election day every Democrat, and every real progressive who is independent in politcs, to go to the polls and vote for Wilson. A vote for Wilson is a vote against standpattism—against what was called Cannonism when Col. Rosevelt was President: When Col Roosevelt had not declared himself a standpatter—and everyone, of whatever political creed or leaning, who is sincerely progressive should gladly vote for the one candidate who stands for progress."

This is the truth in a nutshell, and it is needless to say more to voters who want to do the right thing.

After the election, Tammany may as well adopt the commission form of government.

CURRENT COMMENT.

North Texas seems to be undergoing a regular old Pharaoh, Egyptian plague siege. Not long ago the flies were so bad that the farmers had to work at night in order to avoid them, and now the fleas have appeared in such vast numbers that barns and feeding places have been abandoned, horses and cattle refusing to eat in them because of the torture inflicted by the little pests.—Houston Chronicle.

Those who had expected Iredell Meares to "come down," do not know. At the outset, The Observer said that when Meares got on the ticket, he got there to stick. Its advice was meant to save trouble to any sort of combination that might want to get him out of the way.—Charlotte Observer.

It is a most curious anomally that we leave entirely in the hands of men, often ignorant, sometimes immoral, at times careless, the control and direction of our public schools, hospitals and asylums, without any help from that half of the community which is best fitted by nature and by inclination to care for such enterprises, which takes the deepest interest in them, and which has shown its fitness for the work of caring for the young, the helpless, the aged, and the erring, by the very fact that civilization has, with each step in advance, assigned such work more exclusively to women.—New Orleans Item.

Mr. Bryan has never forgiven Col. Roosevelt for the theft of some of his progressive planks and his sallies at him contribute to the humor of the campaign. Talking to a crowd of 3,500 at Pittsburg Mr. Bryan said the "Armageddon" passage occurred in the sixteenth verse of the sixteenth chapter of Revelations, and he wondered how the Progressives came to miss the previous verse, the fifteenth which reads: "Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and see his shame." "If you took the Democratic garments off Roosevelt he would be driven off the streets by the authorities," said Mr. Bryan. "If you examine his clothes, you will find them all second hand."—Savannah News.

Nearly all the papers are making fun of the Wanamaker attempt to work a scare and to declare that Wilson's election will mean a panic. The New York American has a leading editorial declaring that "Wilson's Election Spells Business Prosperity." It shows that most of the panics have occurred in the Republican and high tariff administrations and that the Republicans will find it impossible to frighten voters by that parrot cry that Wilson's election would destroy prosperity. Closing a long editorial, the Hearst paper says: "The American believes that on November 5th a greater number of intelligent business men will vote for Governor Wilson than for Mr. Taft or Colonel Roosevelt." The well-greased and well-oiled scare that Mr. Taft and Mr. Wanamaker launched a few days ago has proved a boomerang.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Chairman McCombs' message on the Democratic canvass up to within eight days of the opening of the Presidential poll is one of assurance to all supporters of Governor Wilson and reassurance to the doubtful who may still be listening to familiar talk of ruin to prosperity from his success. There is going to be no change in the tariff except to make it less burdensome to living and industry. There is going to be no interference with prosperity except to transfer some of it from privilege to the people. There is going to be no interference with "well enough" except to make it better. With these facts in mind the American electorate may well follow the contest down the homestretch in the determination to make the verdict so emphatic as to remove all question of its meaning and all possibility of no election by the people.—New York World.

Saves Leg of Boy

"It seemed that my 14-year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquone, N. C. BOYS AND GIRLS.

That Ten Thousand Dollars.

Boys and girls now is your chance,
Go by Honnet's in the window glance;
There's something there that's so sublime
You'll cry with joy, "If 'twas only mine."
It can be yours, as you will se,
I'll tell you how, now listen to me.
You 'phone or see Mr. Willie McGirt
That hustling chairman, so alert
Of the Wilson-Marshall campaign fund,
Tell him to enter your name as one
Of the boys or girls thats in the race,
An then get out and set the pace.
The pri e is a handsome watch of gold,
Cost thirty-five dollars so I'm told.
That's well worth working for you see,
Besides you're showing loy-al-ty.
Money's not hard to get, it's easy,
It comes so slick, you'd think 'twas greasy,
There's lots of folks in every station,
Just waiting for an invitation.
Don't stop a man and grab his collar.
And shake him till he drops a dollar,
Just ask him if he will not pause,
And give you something for the cause.
Then at once he will surmise,
That you are working for the prize.
So boys and girls, it's up to you,
To get your name in the blue book, too.
The one that wins, thier face will shine,
When someone asks them, "What's the time." —S. A. M.

After 20 Years' Illness, Friends of Mrs. Bowen Thought She Could Not Recover

Arritts, Va.—"For 20 years I suffered with womanly trouble," says Mrs. D. J. Bowen, of this place, "and although I tried different treatments, I did not get any relief.

I was unable to look after any of my work, and my friends thought I could not get well.

Finally, I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't taken one-third of the bottle, before I could notice its good effects.

Now I can do all my work, feel like I'm not more than 16 years old, but am really 49. My friends say I look so well, they hardly know me when they meet me in the road.

My daughter is using Cardui now, and she says it is a fine medicine. I also have a number of lady friends who are taking it, since they found out how it helped me.

Whenever I feel a little fatigued after a days work, I just take a dose of Cardui, and am all right.

I can't say too much for Cardui."

GOES TO SUPERIOR COURT

Wilson Hudson, White, Waived Preliminary Investigation on Seduction Charge—Other Cases Before Recorder

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Wilson Hudson, a white man, waived preliminary investigation of a charge of seduction and was bound over to Superior Court. In default of $1,000 bond he went to jail. Mr. J. Q. Herring appears as prosecutor in the case and he was represented by Marsden Bellamy and Wm. J. Bellamy, Esqs. Seduction of Mr. Herring's 16-year-old daughter, Myrtle Herring, is charged. The defendant offered to marry the girl, it is said, but the father has forbidden the Register of Deeds to issue a license because he has heard a report that the man is already married.

It is said that the defendant admits his relations with the girl, but denies that he ever intended to marry her. However, after being arrested he is said to have offered to marry her. Hudson, it is said, denies most emphatically that he is a married man. From the reports that reach police headquarters this is not Hudson's first escapade of this kind and Chief of Police Fowler remarked yesterday that it is not improbable that other charges may later be brought against him. A case charging him with living in illegal relations with the girl was continued.

John Bishop, colored, was found guilty of a charge of assault with deadly weapon upon Della Cobb, also colored, and was given a term of six months on the county roads. He is said to have pointed a pistol at the Cobb woman.

A case against Elias Miller, a colored youth, charged with shooting Sallie Gooden, also colored, with a slingshot, was nol prossed on account of the youth of the defendant. W. P. Mangum Turner, Esq., appeared for him. The evidence was to the effect that the boy had only a small-sized rubber band which he used as a slingshot. The woman struck the boy with a bottle and she was fined $10 and costs. Nol pros with leave was taken in a case against Max Washour, white, charged with obstructing the sidewalk. It is said that the alleged offense consisted of hanging some clothes out in front of the defendant's store. Judgment was suspended in a case against French Lewis, white, for riding a bicycle on the wrong side of the street. D. P. Merritt, white, paid the costs for riding a motorcycle on the wrong side of the street. C. B. Parmele, white, was found guilty of violating the speed law with an automobile and was taxed the costs. A case against M. Clancy, white, for running an automobile without a number, was continued until today. J. P. Hopewell, white, was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct on a street car Saturday night.

Probable cause was found in a case against James Hill, colored, charged with larceny from the person and he was bound over to Superior Court, going to jail in default of $200 bond. It is alleged that he held up and robbed a negro girl of $1. A case against him for resisting arrest is continued until after the trial of the larceny case in Superior Court.

SOCIAL AT BOYS' BRIGADE

Entertainments Planned for Each Month During Winter

The members of the Boys' Brigade and their families were royally entertained last night at their armory and all voted it one of the most enjoyable informal affairs they had ever participated in.

The entertainment consisted of a solo by Mr. W. R. Dosher, acrobatic feats by Chas. Bell and Urchie Ellis, two of the juvenile members of the Brigade. A vocal duet by Messrs. Chas. Dushan and W. R. Dosher, a splendid, though short, address by Col. Walker Taylor, selections by the Acme Male Quartette, and a series of records on two high-class phonographs operated and owned by Dr. J. D. Nutt and Mr. J. W. Smith, who gave several selections of a very high order, all of which were received with great pleasure. Every number on the programme seemed to please but the numbers by the Acme Male Quartette were the favorites by great odds, the quartette being obliged to respond to four encores and then the people were not satisfied.

At the end of the programme refreshments were served by the social committee, assisted by several ladies, and the remainder of the evening was spent in social chatting and laughter until about 11 o'clock, after which the members and their guests dispersed to their homes feeling that they had spent a most delightful evening. This is the first of these members' social evenings and they promise to become very popular during this Winter. The next will be the annual oyster roast at the sound which will probably be held during next month. This is one of the features of Brigade life to which the members always look forward with great pleasure and they are never disappointed.

Arrested on Capiases.

Capiases from the Recorder's court were placed in the hands of the police last night for women of the underworld whose cases were nol prossed with leave a few days ago upon condition that they leave the district in which they have been living. Only two of the women could be found, the others apparently having left the city. Those arrested were Edith St. Clair and Mabel Valentine. They gave $25 bond each for their appearance in the Recorder's court this morning.

SUIT AGAINST THE CITY

Action to Recover Cost of Lumber Used in Sixth Street Bridge

It would appear that there is to be no end to litigation growing out of the construction of the bridge over the A. C. L. tracks at Sixth street, work on which was commenced under the former city administration. Yesterday the Wilmington Lumber Co., started suit in Superior Court against the city of Wilmington for the recovery of $568.75, which is said to be the value of the lumber used in the structure and which, it is alleged, was owned by the plaintiff on May 14th, 1911, at the time it was taken over by the defendant, "purporting to take it," it is averred, "under a claim and delivery proceeding from the Southern Construction Company, which company was under contract to construct said bridge." The complaint further sets out that the plaintiff has requested counsel for the city to file pleadings in said claim and delivery proceedings to the end that the lumber company might intervene and put up its right to said lumber, but that said city has never done so. The plaintiff company is represented by Rountree & Carr.

G. C. Gee, White, Arrested Here for South Carolina Authorities

Wanted in Florence, S. C., where he is said to have formerly resided, on a charge of false pretense, G. C. Gee was committed to the city prison and the South Carolina authorities were notified. A message was received later in the day that an officer would leave Florence on the next train to take him back there for trial.

The warrant, which was received yesterday, alleges that Gee gave to Saunders & Chandler, of Florence, as security for value received, $97.50, a certain note and mortgage covering certain property knowing at the time that he did not have any such property. FOOTBALL SATURDAY

Donaldson and Wilmington High School to Meet In Fayetteville

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer:

"Donaldson Military School will open the football season here on Saturday next, November 2nd, in a game with the Wilmington High School. Wilmington boasts this year of having the strongest high school team in the State, so lovers of the manly sport may look for an exciting battle on Saturday.

"This year, for the first time, Donaldson has organized an athletic association. Thus the teams are sure of the full support of the corps. The officers of the association are: President, S. C. Wanamaker; vice president, B. G. Stowe; secretary and treasurer, Wm. Glover.

"Prof. Currie is coaching the team and it is probable that Donaldson will this year send out a better team than ever before.

"Let our people give the Donaldson boys a good attendance Saturday. They should do this (if for no other reason) because it is our home school and a most excellent one at that. Judging from the accounts in the daily press, the other towns in the State see to it that their own schools are given hearty support in every laudable undertaking athletic sports included. The people of Fayetteville have been noticeably lax in that particular, and are thereby in their own light. A good military school, such as is Donaldson, is a great asset in any town or city, but in order for it to reach the full measure of usefulness it should have undivided home support."

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Haering of charges of disorderly conduct against Lucile Cameron, the Minneapolis girl, whose name has been linked with Jack Johnson, was today postponed until November 14th.

BOYS ROB TRAIN.

Youthful Bandits Fire Trestle and Hold Up M. K. & T. Train.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 29.—Southbound Missouri, Kansas & Texas R. R. train No. 9, was held up and robbed early today at Wirth, Okla., by three masked men.

The bandits, said to be little more than boys, flagged the train as it rounded a curve near a trestle which they had set on fire. Uncoupling the engine, express and baggage cars, they compelled the engineer to run across the burning trestle half a mile further south, where the express safe was blown open and robbed. Express officials believe the loot will amount to several thousand dollars. The young bandits had timed their work to the minute.

No. 9 was running on time and as the train rounded the curve, the bridge was in flames. Three masked men flagged it, but the engineer ran upon the trestle before it could be brought to a stop. Although the flames threatened to destroy the bridge before the bandits completed their work, at which they proceeded deliberately, the engineer, fireman, Conductod J. A. Dolan and a negro porter all were covered with a revolver by one of the bandits. The other two uncoupled the engine, baggage and express cars. They then forced the trainmen into the cab and ordered the engineer to open the throttle. The engine pulling the two cars shot ahead over the burning trestle. What remained of the trestle fell into the water just after the cars cleared it.

Half a mile south of the bridge, the train was stopped and the safe in the express car dynamited and robbed.

When their work was completed the bandits fled to the wood covered hills with the loot in sacks. A few minutes later Conductor Dolan instructed the engineer to proceed to Crowder, six miles south.

Posses were immediately organized and a pursuit started.

REPLIES TO TAFT.

Adlai E. Stevenson Answers President's Charges About Panic.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 29.—Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice President in Grover Cleveland's administration, today replied to the recent statement of President Taft to the effect that the panic of 1893 was caused by the election of Cleveland. Mr. Stevenson in a statement said:

"The assertion of the President that 'unmistakably upon Cleveland's election capital and industry took alarm and business was disorganized,' is, in the light of history, astounding. The McKinley tariff law was then in operation and the Democratic victory of 1892 was the emphatic protest of the people against the injustice and oppression of that tariff. The panic began long before the inauguration of Cleveland and as President Taft admits, two years before the enactment of the Wilson tariff.

"The President says 'the Wilson bill was in sight above the horizon the morning after the November election of 1892 and capital became alarmed', etc.; strange, indeed, that the people should suddenly become alarmed on the morning after election at what they had done after deliberation, by nearly a million votes the day before. It was the McKinley tariff that was 'in sight above the horizon' on the morning before election of 1892 and resulted in Cleveland receiving 277 electoral votes to 145 for Harrison.

"The President will doubtless have occasion to remember that it was the oppressive, iniquitous Payne-Aldrich law which he signed and declared to be the best tariff law, that was 'in sight above the horizon' on the morning of November 5th, 1912, and not the revision downward tariff law of the future, now so earnestly demanded."

SPEAKS TO PASSENGERS

Marshall Held Up by Train Wreck—Speaks at Lemmon, S. D.

Lemmon, S. D., Oct. 29.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, Democratic candidate for Vice President, today sent several train loads of politics out into the State of South Dakota, when he delivered an unscheduled speech at Lemmon, where his train had been held up for nine hours by a freight wreck. Governor Marshall's audience in the city hall was composed mainly of passengers from the Seattle-Chicago limited on the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Railway and from several local passenger trains also blocked at Lemmon by the wreck. While the Vice Presidential candidate was speaking Mrs. Marshall was busy seeking aid for the family of Brakeman Breiting, killed in the freight wreck, who was reported to have left 11 children.

In opening his address Governor Marshall attacked the Progressive party in South Dakota.

"I would like Governor Wilson to carry South Dakota," said Governor Marshall, "but I want him to carry it because the people of South Dakota want him and not because certain men here who may not believe in his policies, will be forced to vote for him or stay away from the polls, because they have been disfranchised by the 'purists' of South Dakota, who have removed the Taft electors from the official ballot. But if you vote for Governor Wilson, I urge you most earnestly to elect Democratic Congressmen from South Dakota to back him up in carrying out the pledges in the Democratic platform. "We don't want a half-way victory in November."

BIRD PROTECTION

Sum of $60,000 Spent by Audubon Societies—Fund for Robin

New York, Oct. 29.—The sum of $60,000 was spent by the National Association of Audubon societies this year for bird protection, Secretary Gilbert Pearson reported at the eighth annual meeting today. He announced that Mrs. Margaret Sage had renewed her pledge of $5,000 a year for three years for the protection of the robin in the Southern States. The sum of $7,500, he added, would be spent for bird protection in Alaska during the coming year.

In the work for preservation of the robin the reports show that Virginia had responded to the suggestion of the association by passing a law, taking the robin from the list of game birds. Work along this line would be pushed in the six other Southern States, where hunters are now permitted to shoot robins, Secretary Pearson stated.

DYNAMITE CARRIED ON TRAIN

And Was Thrown From Car Window, According to Witness

Indianapolis, Oct. 29.—Testimony that two packages of dynamite were carried on a fast passenger train from Chicago and that after a fuse of each package was lit both bundles were thrown out of the train window into some steel construction work at Indiana Harbor, Ind., was given at the "dynamite conspiracy trial" today. John F. Byrne, a night watchman, testified that at 1 A. M., May 24th, 1909, he noticed the sputter of a fuse burning in the darkness. Investigating he said he found the fire was fast reaching 14 sticks of dynamite wrapped together in a Chicago newspaper. Unable to extinguish the fuse, he threw the dynamite into an inlet of the lake, said Byrne. Near a patrol box where he was going to send in a call, Byrne testified he found another package of 14 sticks of dynamite, the fuse to which had been lighted but had gone out.

The witness said no one could have put the explosive at those points except by throwing it off a train. The government contends that someone other than Ortie E. McManigal and James B. McNamara arranged for the explosion.

Gerald Mays, a night watchman in the office building in Indianapolis where the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers had its headquarters, testified that 10 days before his arrest, J. J. McNamara had many boxes moved out of the office to a vault in the basement. Mays said after the Los Angeles Times explosion he saw P. A. Cooley, New Orleans, a member of the executive board now on trial, go into the office to talk to McNamara.

SUICIDE OR MURDER?

Mrs. W. P. McComas Found Seriously Wounded

San Francisco, Oct. 29.—Paying no attention to a report of a revolver which came from a room which he had just quitted after a quarrel, with his wife, W. P. McComas, a mining engineer, left the building today and reported the matter to the police. The police found Mrs. McComas huddled behind the door of the apartment with a bullet wound in her temple. Her condition is critical. Surgeons expressed doubt that the wound could have been self-inflicted and an investigation was begun.

McComas, who is said to have extensive mining interests in Sonora, Mexico, said he had quarreled with his wife and was seeking a sleeping pill when he left the room. He was held pending investigation.

McComas was tried and acquitted in Los Angeles of the murder of Mrs. Charlotte Noyes, who was slain in her apartments on February 28th, 1908, four years after he was married to Miss Leona Vanderson, a school teacher of Deming, N. M. McComas did not deny that he was with Mrs. Noyes when she was killed. After the killing McComas rushed out of the Noyes apartment with his face smeared with acid and declared that the woman had hurled vitrol upon him.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me. DEFENSE SCORES AGAIN

Timber Workers Advised Against Violence, Witnesses Testify

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 29.—A point for the defense was scored today in the Grabow labor riot case when Henry Glasscock, one of the witnesses for the defense, testified that President Emerson, one of the defendants, instead of advising violence in the speech that he was delivering when the battle broke out, declared that the Brotherhood of Timber Workers intended to accomplish the purpose of its strike through organization. Much of the testimony of the witnesses for the defense today was relative to the beginning of the battle. Though none attempted to say who fired the first shot, they agreed in their statements that it came from some one of the mill men within the mill office. John Dryden testified that he saw John Galloway, armed with a gun on the night before the riot and heard him say:

"I understand that they are going to have a union speaker here, but he will never speak as long as I have a cartridge in my gun."

TRAVERS FINED $1,500.

Indicted for Embezzling Stamps Changes Plea to Nolo Contendere.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Arthur M. Travers, former acting Third Assistant Postmaster General, indicted for conspiracy and embezzlement in taking valuable postage stamps from the Postoffice Department, today withdrew his plea of not guilty, substituting one of nolo contendere and was fined $1,500.

Joseph Steinmetz, a philatelist, indicted for conspiracy with Travers, probably will not be prosecuted. It was charged that Travers took from the Postoffice Department rare stamps of high philatelic value and substituted current issues.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—Albert Soulies, former acting superintendent of a sub-station of the local postoffice, was found guilty in the United States District Court this morning of having embezzled several hundred dollars of the funds of his office. Judge Foster sentenced him to serve three years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Start Your Baby With Sound Health

Regular Bowel Movement from Childhood on Forestalls Future Serious Diseases

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance or carelessness in the feeding of a baby its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the two chief organs on which the infant's comfort and health depend are causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—but it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative tonic. In the opinion of a great many people, among them such well-known persons as the parents of Reginald Wayne Dannis, 29 Silmer street, Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. Edward T. Rohlader, 211 N. Chapel street, Baltimore, Md., the proper remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a pleasant-tasting laxative, which every person likes. It is mild, non-griping, and contains that most excellent of all digestants, pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills, etc., are distressing. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, billiousness, headaches, and the various other disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels nothing is more suitable than this mild laxative tonic, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Two generations of people are using it today, and thousands of families

keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 414 Washington street, Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

The annual meeting of L'Agile Cotillon Club was held last night in the Masonic Temple. The most important matter before the meeting was election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, John R. Murchison; vice president, Louis T. Moore; secretary and treasurer, Waddell Watters; leader, E. F. Peschau. With the exception of the vice president the same officers served the club last year. The officers with Messrs. Bernard O'Neil, P. L. Cantwell and Williams Harriss constitute the governing board. The question of giving only two dances a season instead of four was discussed, but action on the proposition was left with the governing board. It is most likely that the usual number of dances will be given this season with the first one in November.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION AT CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

A largely attended and most enjoyable reception was given last night from 8 to 11 o'clock at the First Baptist church. The affair was planned with the idea of bringing members of the congregation together for a few hours social intercourse in order that they might become better acquainted one with the other. It was a great success in every way. There were present about 400 members of the church and congregation. An attractive musical programme was rendered. Miss Cannie Chasten presided at the piano and the vocalists were Misses Lila Keith, Lucile Riley, Mr. Green Fenley, Mr. W. B. Muse, Mrs. F. A. Muse. A number of very enjoyable selections were rendered, after which Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, the pastor, made a few remarks in which he cordially welcomed all who were present and spoke of the benefit to be derived from a gathering of this kind. Those present were then invited to partake of the refreshments which had been provided. Twenty-two long tables had been arranged in the Sunday School rooms and it was here that the dainty refreshments were served. This was the concluding feature of the gathering and at 11 o'clock all departed declaring the evening to have been most pleasantly spent.

DIAZ WILL BE EXECUTED.

Court Martial Decree Will be Carried Out, Regardless of Court.

Mexico City, October 29.—That General Felix Diaz and his associates will be executed at Vera Cruz in accordance with the decree of the court martial, in spite of the order of the Supreme Court, is the disquieting rumor which reached the capital today.

There is some reason to believe that they will be placed in San Ulloa prison today. Colonel Diaz Odaz, chief lieutenant in the Diaz revolt, and who escaped in the confusion on the day of the fighting, was captured last night 10 miles from Vera Cruz. The small force of rebels which were with him are still at large.

With the capture of Odaz, the government expresses the belief that the Diaz revolt is entirely ended, but reports from various parts of the republic indicate that much time must elapse before the complete restoration of peace in Mexico. Rebel activities are reported daily in various parts of Mexico.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 28, 1912.

Once again has our heavenly Father seen fit to call our lodge to join the Grand Lodge above. Our Brother, Thomas Buckner Peirce, was the one chosen and he responded gladly as in all other duties of life. Brother Peirce has been a valued member of Warsaw Lodge No. 203, for a long time and though we mourn his loss to us, yet we humbly bow in acquiescence to the will of the great Master above. Not only our lodge, but the whole community has lost a man, prominent in all the offices of our community and State, a kind neighbor that will be missed by both white and black. As a father his record is remarkable; he and his noble wife has raised a family of eleven children and given them all a first-class education, and they are now prominent in both business and church circles of our State. This is the first break in a happy family. 'Tis needless to say more, his epitaph is written on the hearts of his neighbors who knew and loved him.

Be it resolved, That Warsaw Lodge No. 203, I. O. O. F., in heartfelt sorrow that he has been called from us, yet bow to the will of Him who doth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our records and a copy be sent to the wife and family of our brother. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Wilmington Star, our local paper and the North Carolina Odd Fellows' paper for publication. That in memory of our brother, we wear the usual badge of memory for 30 days.

The Bijou

Headed by the fourth in the series of what has become widely and famously known as what happened to "Mary" stories, the Bijou will make a big offering today. This leading film will be "The Affair at Raynor's" and it is the most thrilling of all the "Mary" photoplays, which, as is well-known, are produced in celebration with "The Ladies' Ward." The film features the clever and celebrated actress, Miss Mary Fuller, and the cast is composed of all noted artists. This film should certainly not be missed by any one, but especially by those who are familiar with the "Mary" stories.

The Biograph's latest film, "So Near, Yet So Far," is also a star today and it is decidedly pretty, both in action and in thought. It shows how a bashful fellow finally meets the girl he loves. It is most novel.

"The Love Germ," a film as merry as its name would indicate, is also one of today's topliners. Father and son fall in love with mother and daughter, and the chauffeur also feels the germ and falls in love with the chambermaid. Then a general quarrel ensues, and they all part and remain parted until the old man thinks up a fine scheme whereby they are all reunited. Its just awfully jolly.

Amusement lovers cannot miss today's Bijou bill, and while extra expense has been indulged in they should remember that the same old price of admission—5 cents—holds forth. It is the same, with the same big show, afternoon and night. It never will change.

At The Grand Theatre

Today's big feature song by Mr. Leonard Chick at the Grand Theatre will be the Atlantic City success, "When You're Away." This is said to be the swellest ballad ever written and patrons of The Grand are advised to hear it as the number is one of the very best.

In the pictures there will be two feature films and a third, all with full orchestral accompaniment and realistic effects. In fact, The Grand gets the pictures and then does not fail to play them up for all they are worth. The small price of admission and the excellence of the production always given are crowding the theatre each afternoon and night and if one is not a Grand enthusiast he or she should become one at once.

"The Foundling" is a strong Edison for today. The spectator is introduced to a young man, Frank, who is supposed to be the son of a celebrated artist. Frank and another man are rivals for the presidency of a well-known club. Shortly before the election the rival discovers Frank is not really the great artist's son. The denouement is one of the tragedies of life that is particularly strong and will be appreciated.

The other feature is a Lubin, "No Trespassing." This is the story of a young surveyor and a pretty girl that leaves a decidedly pleasing impression on the audience. It should be seen to be appreciated. On the same reel is another highly educational film portraying "The Turpentine Industry." In this the once largest naval store market in the world, this picture will be especially interesting. The picture shows the tapping, rectifying and final uses of turpentine. The scenes are all laid in the South where some of the work is done by convicts.

TAFT HOLDS CONFERENCE.

Meets Leaders in New York, and Discusses Situation.

New York, October 29.—President Taft held one of the last political conferences of the campaign here tonight at the Manhattan Hotel.

Charles P. Taft and Henry W. Taft, his brothers; Chairman Hilles, of the Republican National Committee, and Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, discussed the general political situation with the President at dinner. Afterward many Republican leaders in New York and nearby States met the President and talked over conditions.

It was said tonight the discussion was confined to the general situation; that no change in the plan of campaign was contemplated. Among the leaders who saw the President was Secretary of State Knox, Chairman Barnes, of the New York Republican State Committee; President Koenig, of the New York County Committee; Henry Clews, banker; former Representatives Olcott and Parsons, of New York; C. D. Norton, former secretary of President Taft, and William Nelson Cromwell, of New York.

The President came to New York to witness tomorrow the launching of the nation's biggest battleship, the dreadnaught New York. President Taft will return to Washington Thursday morning.

COTTON CONTINUES UPWARD

Further Advance In Market Caused Prices to Reach New High Ground For Movement—Close 10 to 16 Points Up.

New York, October 29.—There was a further advance in the cotton market today and prices made new high records for the movement on continued Southern spot speculation and predictions of colder weather in the belt. The close was 5 or 6 points off from the best, under realizing, but the final tone was very steady, and last prices still showed net gains of from 10 to 16 points for the day. The market opened steady, at unchanged prices to an advance of four points. There was considerable cotton for sale at the start, owing to somewhat disappointing cables and good weather in the South overnight, but offerings were well absorbed around the initial prices, owing to a continued demand from spot houses and after the publication of the Western belt forecast for lower temperatures and frost, prices turned firmer. The advance was checked by realizing after the active months had sold about 16 to 19 points net higher, but, as was the case earlier in the day, offerings were absorbed on a comparatively moderate dip, and the market a little later developed renewed firmness on continued spot house support, bullish Southern spot advices, and continued covering by Wall Street and local shorts. January contracts sold up to 10.97, or to practically the 11-cent level on this bulge, while March touched 11.14, or fully 83 per bale above the recent low level. Some of the recent large buyers seemed content to take profits, or at least to reduce their lines, around these prices, and the market eased off 8 or 9 points from the best. There was a continued good demand on the setback, however, and the market had a very steady tone in the late trading, with last prices showing a partial recovery of the reaction. Port receipts for the day were the second largest on record, but were supposed to reflect a rush of cotton for the purpose of filling out October exports, and the reports of steady interior markets evidently attracted more attention than the movement.

Spot, steady. Middling uplands, 11.35; do. gulf, 11.60; sales, none.

Cotton futures closed very steady.

Fortunes In Faces

There's often much truth in the saying "her face is her fortune," but it's never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. MARKET STOCKS REACHED LOW LEVEL

Market Was Subjected to Wave of Liquidation and Series of Bear Attacks—Much Impetus From Conditions Abroad.

New York, October 29.—After several days of comparative calm, today's stock market was subjected to another wave of liquidation and a series of bear attacks, which sent prices to the lowest level of the current movements. The selling derived much of its impetus from conditions abroad, where most markets continued to manifest considerable apprehension. Undoubtedly, however, the decline was materially assisted by the aggressive attitude of a bearish faction here, which has become emboldened, not only by the tension across the water, but such factors as money and politics. Canadian Pacific was weakest of the international group, declining over two points in London before our opening. Its maximum decline here was 7 points, from which it made but slight recovery.

The settlements in London progressed without great strain, although a failure of some importance occurred at that center. Reading and Amalgamated Copper also were singled out for short selling and other coppers reflected the change which is said to have come over the condition of that industry. United States Steel, too, was the object of extensive bear sales, with resultant sabtle declines. The statement for the Steel Corporation for the third quarter of the year issued after the close of the market, disclosed total earnings of $30,063,512 and net earnings of $20,777,465, compared with $25,102,255, and $18,429,249 in the preceding quarter. The statement by months shows that August business was vastly better than that of July and slightly better than September.

Bonds were lower, but relatively stronger than stocks. Total sales, par value, $1,500,000. United States bonds were unchanged. Total sales today, 617,100.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Of Steel Corporation Shows Large Increase In Total Earnings

New York, Oct. 29.—The financial statement of the United States Steel Corporation for the third quarter of the calendar year, issued today, shows total earnings of $30,063,512 and net earnings of $20,777,463, representing gains of $4,961,257 and $2,348,171 respectively compared with the preceding quarter. The surplus for the quarter amounts to $2,434,801, against $56,483 three months ago.

The showing is up to general estimates, but compares unfavorably with the same quarter of last year, when net earnings and surplus were larger than those reached today. This is partly explained, however, by the fact that in this year's third quarter, "charges and allowances" aggregated $7,658,049, against $6,806,568 last year.

An analysis of the latest statement shows that business for August was much in excess of that of July and slightly better than that of September. Officials of the corporation declined to comment on the present status of trade, but the month now ending is believed to show a slight falling off from recent high pressure.

Today's meeting was of brief duration and the attendance of directors was smaller than usual. Regular dividends were declared on the preferred and common shares.

TINKER TO MANAGE REDS

Cub Shortstop Will Pilot Cincinnati If Trade Can Be Made

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Shortstop Joe Tinker, of the Chicago National League baseball team, and Garry Herrman agreed upon terms under which Tinker will manage the Cincinnati Nationals next season if he can obtain his release from Chicago, it was announced today.

Tinker announced that he would not play again with the Chicago Nationals. "I can't play the same kind of ball under Evers that I did under Chance," said Tinker. After a long conference with Mr. Herrman, the shortstop said that Herrman was prepared to trade several players for him.

"He will give one infielder and two outfielders for me," said Tinker. "After our talk he declared that he would give Grant for me or that Evers might have two of the following four outfielders: Mitchell, Kinsley, Bates or Kyle.

"Evers says he will not consent to a trade unless he can get Mike Doolan, of Philadelphia, for a shortstop. That is unjust to me as there are three Cincinnati players available that would make a good infield."

DECISIVE BATTLE IS BEING FOUGHT

Greeks and Turks in the Kodani region of Macedonia. According to reports given out the Greeks are being driven back.

Dispatches dated three days ago give the first news received here of the precarious position of the Western army, which was admitted to be grave. It is asserted, however, that a considerable force was still concentrated at Veles, disputing the advance of the Servians and Bulgarians.

Turkish Cabinet Changes

Constantinople, Oct. 29.—Kiamil Pasha, president of the Council of State, assumed the office of Grand Vizier this afternoon in succession to Ghazi Mouhtar Pasha, who resigned.

An imperial decree commands the new Grand Vizier to prosecute the war with all energy.

Although all the changes in the cabinet have not yet been made, it is announced that Nazim Pasha will be retained as Minister of War and Noradunghian Pasha as Minister of Foreign Affairs. Jemalledin Pasha also will be retained as Sheik-Ul-Islam.

The change in the Grand Vizierate is not expected materially to influence either the internal or external situation. When Kiamil Pasha three months ago accepted the presidency of the council he became the dominant figure of the cabinet and it was foreseen that he would succeed to the Grand Vizierate at an opportune moment.

The motives for the resignation of Mukhtar Pasha are not known. It is supposed he began to feel that the responsibility for the crisis was burdensome, while the unfavorable reports current with regard to the illsuccess of his son's operations against the Bulgarians doubtless caused him much chagrin.

The retention of Noradunghian Pasha as Foreign Minister shows that no startling innovations in the foreign policy are likely.

Veles Captured by Servians

Belgrade, Oct. 29.—The capture of Veles was effected by a comparatively small body of Servian cavalry under command of the King's brother, Prince Arsene. It was a daring deed which has excited admiration. It also has provoked comment, because had the Turks been aware of the smallness of the Servian forces, the results might have been serious. As it was they were taken by surprise and hastily retreated.

Turks Evacuate Istip

Belgrade, Oct. 29.—Turkish troops also evacuated Istip and Valaz, retreating toward Monastir and Saloniki, pursued by Servian cavalry, according to a report from Servian headquarters at the front. The Servians captured large stores of war materials.

Balkan Forces Larger Than Thought

Athens, Oct. 29.—According to reliable information the Balkan allies have at the front 166,000 more men than they were heretofore credited with.

Turks Sustained Heavy Losses

Vranya, Servia, Oct. 29.—At the battle of Kumanova the Servians lost 500 killed and 2,000 wounded. The Turks lost 10,000 killed or wounded.

All accounts of the fight pay tribute to the valor of the Servian officers and men. Lieutenant Milich, commanding an infantry company, blew out his brains rather than obey a command to retire from an exposed position, whereupon his men charged the Turks and all of them were killed.

The cavalry with the King's brother, Prince Arsene, at the head, charged repeatedly. The commander-in-chief, Crown Prince Alexander, frequently was on the firing line and entered the town while the battle was in full swing. Wherever he passed, the soldiers, even the wounded, cheered.

BALLOONS STILL UP

Record In International Race So Far Is 777 Miles

Berlin, Oct. 29.—While many of the balloons which started from Stuttgart Sunday in the international contest for the Gordon Bennett cup have returned to the earth, some of them still are in the air. The Belgian balloon Minckeleres, piloted by F. Gerard, landed last night at Alexanderhof, in Courland, Russia, having covered 1,150 kilometers (777 miles), the longest distance so far reached. Reichfluzverein, piloted by Broeckelmann, Germany, covered more than 1,200 kilometers.

Jean DeFrancia, in charge of the English balloon, Honeymoon, sent a message that he hoped to sail for another night.

Avon Hoffman, Pilot Berry's aide in the American balloon, Million Population, reports having seen a balloon very high, drifting over the Baltic in the direction of Denmark.

The German, Hamburg III, piloted by F. Eimermacher, landed in the Rominten Forest, the Emperor's great hunting preserve near the Russian frontier. The Frankfort (F. H. Lenhart) Austria, landed at Rosenowskoie, apparently in Russian Poland. Belgica II (Lemuzter), Belgium, made a landing in Bohemia.

STATE WANTS CONTROL.

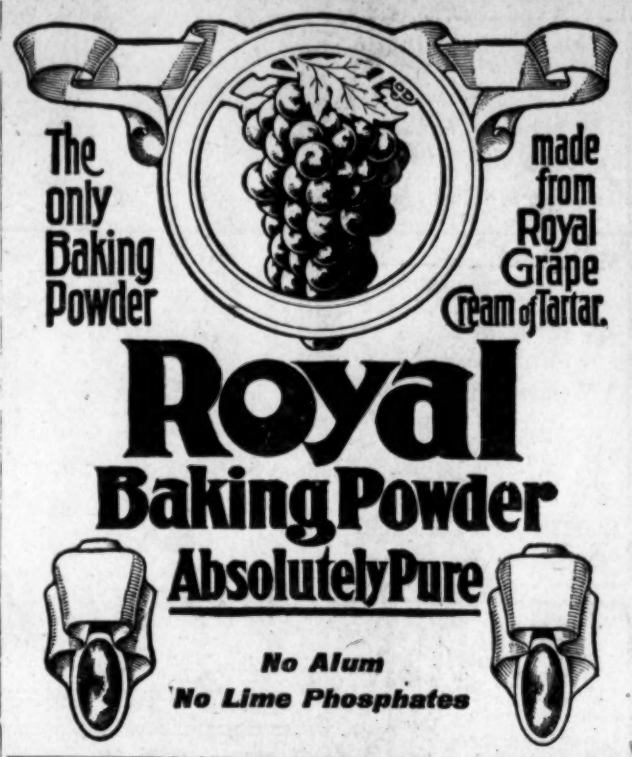
Would Divorce Excise Control From New York Police.

New York, Oct. 29.—The divorce of the New York police department from enforcement of the gambling, excise and vice laws will be recommended to the State Legislature at its next session. In th city hall, police headquarters and in the offices of societies devoted to fighting vice, the proposal is receiving serious consideraton.

Excise control, it is proposed, shall be delegated entirely to the State excise department.

A board of public morals under the new scheme would be formed to enforce the laws against gambling and vice. Those interested in the movement are of the opinion that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and other prominent persons who have been active in contributing their wealth or their personal efforts to the suppression of vice, would accept membership upon such a board.

Washington, Oct. 29. — President Taft today declined an invitation to visit Charleston, S. C., during the Atlantic fleet review there November 16-23, extended by Mayor John P. Grace and a committee of two.



ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland to Marry Prof. Thomas Joseph Preston.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland authorizes the announcement of her engagement to Thomas Joseph Preston, professor of archaeology and history of arts at Wells College. The date of the marriage is not yet determined, but will be announced later.

Mrs. Cleveland is a graduate of Wells College and has been a trustee of that institution since 1887.

Her wedding to President Grover Cleveland, which took place in the executive mansion during his first administration, was one of the notable events in the history of the White House. Her father, Oscar Folsom, was a law partner of Mr. Cleveland, who, upon Mr. Folsom's death in 1875 became Frances Folsom's guardian.

After his retirement from the Presidency, Mr. Cleveland made his permanent home in Princeton and Mrs. Cleveland has continued to reside there since the former President died in 1908. Her two daughters, Esther and Marion, and her son Richard F., are living with her here.

The announcement of the engagement was made tonight by President John Grier Hibben, of Princeton University, who said:

"Prof. Preston is 50 years of age. He is a graduate of Princeton and one whom we hold in very high esteem. As a young man he began his university studies at Columbia, which, however, were interrupted on account of illness. At that time he gave up the idea of completing his education and went into business, in which he made a very rapid and notable success, establishing him at the head of a very prosperous manufacturing company in Newark, N. J. After securing a substantial fortune and feeling keenly that continued business success could not compensate for his abandoned college career, he determined to attain a long desired end which his earlier years had denied him. Although nearing the age of 40 he nevertheless closed his active business career and went abroad to study for two years at the Sorbonne, Paris.

Returning to America he came to Princeton for two more years of additional study. On account of the wide range and unusual excellence of his work, both in under-graduate and graduate studies, he took at the same commencement not only the degree of Litt B., but the degree of M. A. as well, a very unique attainment. He was also elected at that time to the Princeton chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society.

"Prof. Preston was exceedingly popular and made many friends while at Princeton. He was subsequently appointed Fellow of the American School of Classical Study at Rome, and later won in a competition open to all universities of the United States, the fellowship of the Archaelogical Institute of America."

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 29.—A Clarksville, Tenn., special says that Louis Hale, accidentally shot and killed his sister, 17 years old, last night at their home a few miles south of Clarksville. He had been cleaning a revolver and stumbled as he stepped across the room to put it away, the waepon striking something and being fired. The shot struck the girl in the temple.

JOHNSON WELCOMED.

Crowds Hear Him Fill Teddy's Engagements in Connecticut.

Norwich, Conn., Oct. 29.—Over the trail Col. Roosevelt had promised Connecticut Progressives he would cover during the closing days of the campaign, Governor Johnson traveled today and received an enthusiastic welcome. Zealous party followers in Meriden exploded torpedoes and fired cannons in honor of the Governor's arrival, with the result that a report spread around the State that an attempt had been made to assassinate him.

A squad of policemen guarded him in New London tonight, but Governor Johnson did not hear the rumors until after his meetings were closed. He then again laughingly remarked that no one would attempt to injure a man who aspired to the Vice Presidency.

The New London meeting was the largest of the day. Every man was forced to stand as the seats were reserved for women only. More than a score of women gave away American flags and took a collection in tin buckets.

"The victory is won," the Governor told his audience.

"Not the victory that hangs on the counting of the ballots, the mere election of one party over its opponent, but victory in that bigger and broader sense. A great moral victory is won by a great moral people."

The speaker charged Governor Wilson with lacking "the hunch" and the "courage to go to battle with the trusts."

Tonight Governor Johnson left for New York, where he is to appear with Col. Roosevelt at Madison Square Garden tomorrow evening.

RALPH HAMLIN WON

Piloted Franklin Car to Victory In Los Angeles-Phoenix Race

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 28.—Ralph Hamlin, driving the same Franklin car which he has piloted in the Los Angeles-Phoenix road race, every time the desert classic has been run, won the fifth annual race today. It was his first victory. Hamlin was followed into the State fair grounds where the race ended by Charles Souls driving a Cadillac, and Fred Fuller, driving a National was third.

Hamlin's time for the distance of 511 miles was 18 hours, 45 minutes, and Souls was 45 minutes behind him. Fuller's time was 20 hours, 10 minutes. McKee, also in a Cadillac, finished fourth.

The Santiago-Phoenix which was run simultaneously with the Los Angeles event, was won by D. C. Campbell, driving a Stevens-Duryea car; W. E. Ferguson driving an Apperson, was second, and R. L. Greer, in a Mitchell, was third.

A Penny and a Five-Dollar Gold Piece

Bear a distinct family resemblance in size, if not in relation of quality. Consequently if the gold piece is kept in close association with pennies it is likely to share the fate of being taken for one, or rather GIVEN for one, as happened not long ago with a friend of ours.

The lady paid the milkman, as she thought, fifteen cents, but in reality handed him fourteen pennies and the little gold piece, not discovering her error until the following day.
